We, the juniors and seniors, dedicate the annual of 1954 to our parents whose unfailing devotion, interest, and guidance has inspired us to reach for the higher goals of life. May this dedication serve as a token of our appreciation.

Hi Alice!
Don't forget all our good times in Senior High.
Especially the dead
other times in Miss McCluskey's classes. Here's lots of luck to a sweet gal.
Marjorie Westerhold

Hi! Alice,
Missed you 2nd semester but had a pretty good substitute (boy!) Guess who! I got a picture but now maybe I'll get rid of it. I'm losing interest (him, too!)
lots of luck!
Jean Loggman

Hi Alice
See we have many things to think about in our school life. Remember all the gay times when we stayed overnight at each other's house. All our silly crushes.
Remember me as an old maid in school teacher. Best of luck in whatever you do

Class Prophecy

This is station W.H.S. bringing you the news highlights of 1964--international, national, state and local news.

Now, international news--but first, a word from our sponsors, Creamy Cuddle Soap, Inc., "owned by Gene Schroeder. This soap is guaranteed to make your skin glow with beauty--and it gives you dimples besides! It's been tested! It's been proved! "Creamy Cuddle Soap is the cuddliest soap on the market," says career girl, Marlene Koester. Get your bar of Creamy Cuddle Soap now.

Washington, D.C.--The President has just named Gerald Davis to be Ambassador to Lower Slobbovia. He is being flown over by the renowned pilot, Russell Brahmer, who flew the Atlantic in 3 hours, 13 minutes. Another appointment made known by the President yesterday was that of Patti Murphy as the new Ambassador to Ireland. Miss Murphy was very pleased with the announcement. Norene Ebel has just been named as the first woman Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. Miss Ebel, a widely known Nebraskan, succeeds Ronald Breitreutz who reigned to take an extended world tour to spend some of his excess money.

National news--Keep your dial turned to station W.H.S. ! At 3 o'clock tomorrow we will feature an interview with two honored ladies--Mrs. America of 1964, namely Bonnie nee Hyland, and the "Most Talkative Woman of 1964" who is none other than Marianne Schultz. Be listening!

The "Shy Girls Union" held a convention this last week in New York City. At their meeting on Saturday, LaVina Heller was elected president.

Sports news--The greatest thing in wrestling since Gorgeous George, Robert Schulz, came through on top at last night's title bout. It was a thriller. Jerry Bader, winner of the track meet at the last Olympic games has announced that he is preparing to enter the next Olympic competition.

Now, a word from another one of our sponsors--Are you having trouble finding a gift for a friend? It's no problem at all if you'll only select a beautiful hankie from "Handke's Hankie Shop" owned by Leon Handke. His bookkeeper, Alice Hildebrandt, calls it "E Z Shopping" and says that she never has trouble selecting a gift from the gorgeous assortment available. Select yours today.

Local news--A bandit last night broke into "Daberkow's Delicious Diner," Norman Daberkow, owner, and made off with cash and two waitresses, Marjorie Westerhold and Margret Wortman. Chief of Police, Carl Schula, is hot on their trail.

Multimillionaire, Gary Hansen, has provided money to build a "Hansen Center" which, it is said, will make Rockefeller Center look like a palace of bygone days.

Gerald Schula's "Circus Conglomeration" will move into town tomorrow and plans to remain a week. Special features are Little John, trapeze artist who is none other than John Meyer, and that marvelous lion-tamer, Eileen Wilhelm. The side-show offers a spell-bound act by "Eat Everything Kane" whose speciality is fire and sword eating. "Cutie Cupid, the Clown" who is Charles Ziegenbein, will add variety and spice to the show. Another act is the "Giggling Girls from Glengill Gorge" featuring Marlene Eggers, Betty Marx, and Lois Mitchell in the chorus line. Circus bandleader, Elton Kind, will be interviewed on this station at 4:30.

Eldon Heller, the famous hotrod racer was injured yesterday as he was testing the new speed weapon invented by "Slow but Sure" Popken. He was taken immediately to the office of Dr. J. Krieger. Beverly Root, the doctor's competent nurse, reported that Heller, who suffered minor scratches and bruises was released shortly.

The Chicago International Exhibition ended this week. Agricultural agent, Paul Biermann, announced that Gail Anderson won top honors with his "Yorkshire Yankees".

Geraldine Thompson, teacher in New York City, is using the method called the "Wisdom Funnel" invented by Tom Stransky, famous scientist and Nobel prize winner, making it possible to actually pour wisdom into the child's brain through a funnel. It's so much simpler this way!

Throngs of people crowded the fair grounds yesterday to see the famous Dobson Rodeo Troupe featuring Nadine Rathke as a daring Brahma bull rider.

Nationally known hair stylist, Delores Wegner, reports that the latest thing in hair styling is the Collie Curl to replace the Poodle Cut.

Now for the society news--Big name in society! Mary Lou Feller held a formal party at her swanky Long Island estate last night. About 250 people attended the affair. An honored guest was Mary Beth McGill who was named last year as one of the ten best-dressed ladies in the United States. Miss McGill's clothes are all designed by Monsieur Norman D. Behlers of Paris, France.

Now the weather--state forecaster, Ivadell Brehmer, predicts clear skies, plenty of sunshine and warm temperatures for the next five days. That is the news for today.

The next feature on this station will be "The Singing Sweethearts" consisting on Donald Mueller, Dick Brazda, Lloyd Schulz, and Lyle Petersen. They will have as their special guest the world renowned Metropolitan Opera star Marilyn Koenig. Be sure to stay tuned to this station.

This is your reporter, Jean Lemke, signing off for today but reminding you to always keep your dial turned to W.H.S. to hear the news of the people you know.

Class History

Chug-a-chug, chug-a-chug, chooo, choo oo! The Education Express was beginning its pull up the hill to "Success Summit." Train time was 9:00 o'clock, September 7, 1942. The train started on its journey out of the valley with twenty-nine passengers aboard and Miss Doris Jackson as conductor. Still with the train in 1954 are Gail Anderson, Ronald Breitzkreutz, Dick Brazda, Bonnie Hyland, Jim Kane, John Krieger, Betty Marx, Lois Mitchell, Carl Schula, Gerald Schula, Marianne Schultz, Tom Stransky, Geraldine Thompson, Marjorie Westerhold, and Charles Ziegenbein.

Between the first station and the Freshman Depot new passengers jumped on board, many of whom are still with us. In this group are Margaret Wortman, Gerald Davis, Delores Wegner, Mary Lou Feller, Norman Daberkow, and Norman Behlers. During those years thirteen of the original twenty-nine riders left for more distant lands. Others jumped aboard, but stopped at various stations after only a very short trip. Chief conductors through these years were Misses Julia Gross, Wendte, Bartels, Langenberg, Ronspies, Ritter, Svrko, Eksman, Olson, Dewitz, Mary Gross, Mr. Smidt and Mr. Huigens.

"Freshman Station--Next stop!" called chief conductors, Mr. Merriman and Mr. Hageman. This stage of the journey was very steep--perhaps the deciding factor in our lives. The train refueled, another car was needed and workers were added to take care of the horde of new passengers coming aboard. We were happy to welcome Jerry Bader, Sharon Bettenhausen, Paul Biermann, Russell Brahmer, Ivadell Brehmer, Norene Ebel, Marlene Eggers, Leon Handke, Gary Hansen, Ellis Heermann, Eldon Heller, LaVina Heller, Alice Hildebrandt, Elton Kind, Marilyn Koenig, Marlene Koester, Donald Kudrna, Jean Lemke, Mary Beth McGill, John Meyer, Donald Mueller, Patti Murphy, Lyle Petersen, Leon Popken, Nadine Rathke, Beverly Root, Lloyd Schlecht, Gene Schroeder, Lloyd Schulz, Barbara Von Seggern, Thomas Wells, and Eileen Wilhelm at this time. As freshmen we took part in the unforgettable initiation day, enjoyed giving our own dance, and spent a great deal of time getting acquainted with fellow passengers.

Next stop--Sophomore Station! Here we had a picnic and held a very successful dance. Twenty of the passengers had the privilege of serving at the Junior-Senior Banquet of this year.

The next stop in our journey was at the Junior Depot. We really began working together. We entered a float in the homecoming parade, using the theme "Ring out for Victory." We sponsored a dance and put a great deal of work into transforming the gymnasium into a "Fairyland" to honor those who were a "leg" ahead of us in the journey--the seniors of 1953. Many of the passengers proved their acting ability by entertaining us with a three-act play called "Sing for Your Supper."

Our last stop before reaching our final destination was at Senior Station. Here we initiated the new freshmen, sponsored a dance, helped with the annual, took a Sneak Day, and presented our senior class play. These were our happiest months on the Express.

During these four years, eleven of our passengers stepped off the train, and only two joined us--Lyle Dobson and Robert Schulz. Mr. Texley became conductor in the place of Mr. Merriman.

Assisted and encouraged by our parents and teachers, those of us who were diligent and persevering were privileged to complete the voyage to Success Summit. But we have made our last journey together. New goals must now be set which will lead us along unfamiliar paths and into new duties. The road of life may be difficult and steep at times, but the basic foundations have been established, and the success we achieve will be dependent upon the use we have made of the opportunities offered us on the Education Express.

We, the Wisner Bulldog Staff, are happy to present this annual to our friends and fellow students. May it recall many happy memories of your high school days.

Band

The band composed of 51 pieces has won much acclaim during the two years under Mr. Rosenquist's direction. It participated in Band Day in Lincoln in 1952; Norfolk Band Day in 1952; Fremont College Band Day in 1953; given numerous concerts such as the Christmas and pre-contest concerts and has again rated Superior-plus in contests.

The band plays for many community activities such as the Stock Show, Cuming County Fair and "Santa Claus Day."

During the last year a Band Boosters Club has been organized and with its support new wool trousers of grey whipcord now give the band the "new look."

During this year the band has purchased a new tenor saxophone, baritone, and bell lyre.

Pep Band

The pep band furnished much support for our home and out-of-town games. This spirited group of 30 youngsters played for football and basketball games. Tom Stransky was the pep band manager.

Swing Band

The Wisner swing band composed of nine members played at the school dances.

Girls' Glee

This group of 35 girls also won "excellent" in vocal competition at Wayne. The girls performed at the Christmas program and pre-contest concert. Eunice Harms was the accompanist.

Triple Trio

The Triple Trio sang for many community functions, such as P. T. A., Ladies Aid, and school music programs. They also participated in the district music contest at Wayne.

President	Norene Ebel
Vice President.	Lonnie Schmid
Treasurer	Vondell Roth

The Wisner F. F. A. Chapter has a total membership of sixty-six boys. In the summer of 1953 the F. F. A. sponsored a joint picnic with the F. H. A. Another summer activity was a showing and fitting demonstration with beef calves, hogs, and dairy calves put on by County Agent, Joe Watson, and Mr. Beck.

Along came the annual Wisner Junior Livestock Show. Many Wisner F. F. A. 'ers were exhibiting livestock. Devern Brand, John Schmid, and Bill Murphy won purple ribbons on their beef calves. Grand Champion winners were Gail Anderson with the grand champion boar; Clifford Stuthman was gilt winner; Gary Horst, litter; and John Schmid with his dairy animal.

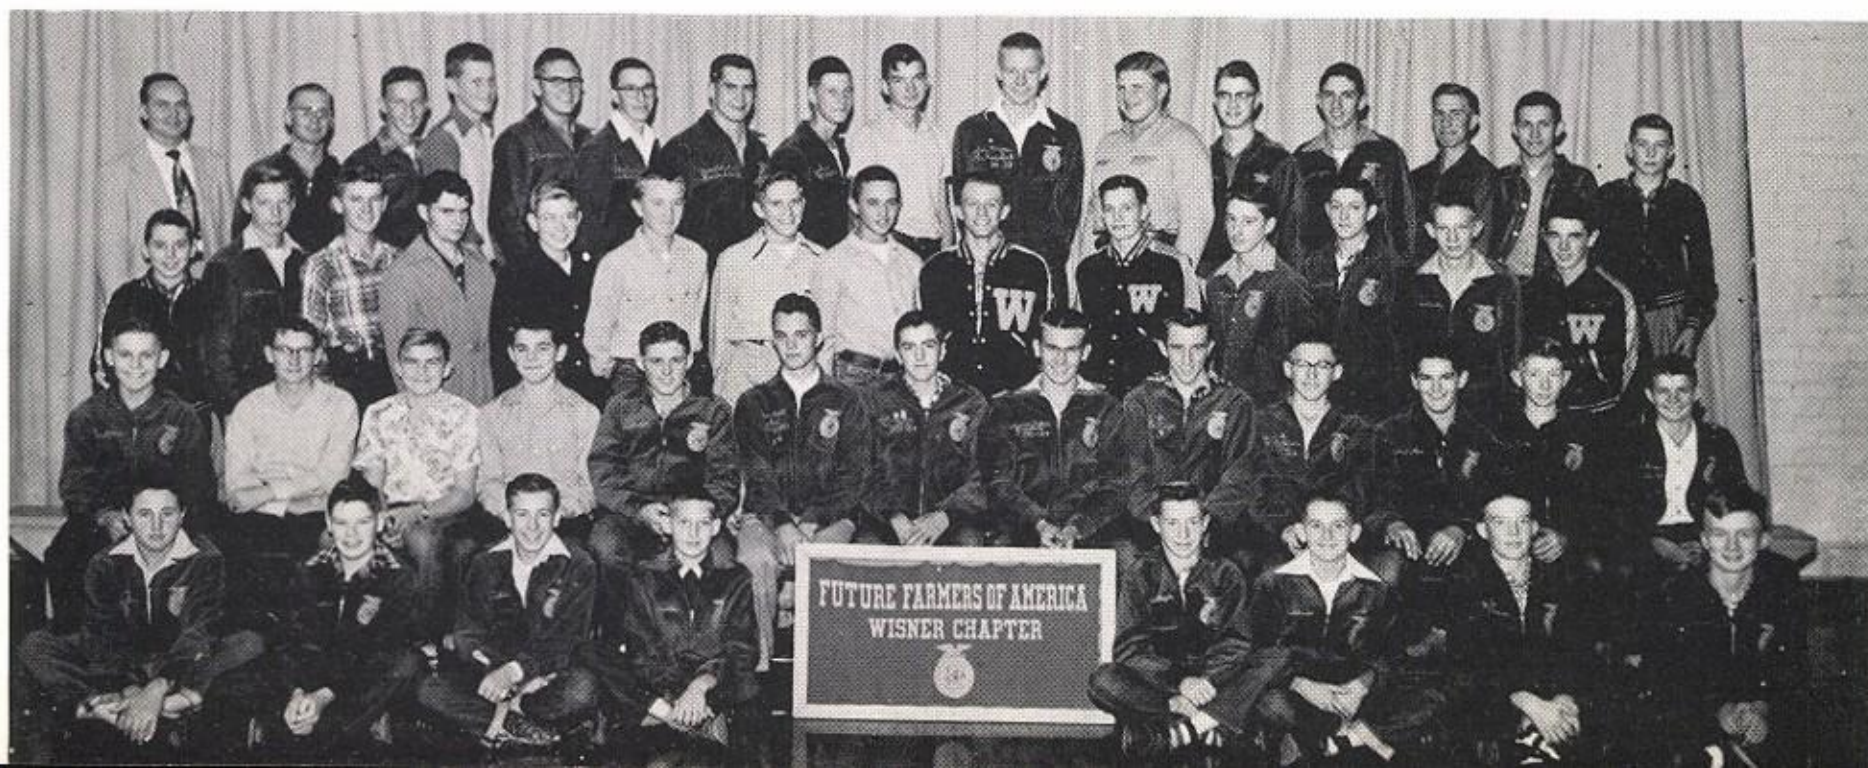

Wisner was host to the annual District III livestock judging contest. At this time Wisner captured the top team award. On this team were Bill Murphy, Russell Brahmer, Lyle Dobson, and Elton Kind. In the junior contest, Wisner won third place and a blue ribbon. Larry Sweigard, Loren Schroeder, John Schmid, and Daryle Vollmer made up the junior team.

Another honor was achieved at the District III Leadership Day. James McGill won the greenhand spelldown contest.

In the fall the Wisner F. F. A. Swine Improvement Association held another annual boar sale. The quality of boars ran very high and the top animal was a Hampshire sold by Willis Kind for $170. The average sale was $107.

The Wisner F. F. A. banquet was held February 25 at the V. F. W. Hall. General chairmen for the banquet were Gail Anderson, Warren Heller, and John Meyer. Jerome Kersten served as master of ceremonies. Slide films were shown of the boys' projects, shop projects and F. F. A. activities. Mr. Harold F. Duis, Director of Vocational Agriculture in Nebraska, gave the main address, "Farmer of Tomorrow."

Many F. F. A. members attended the state F. F. A. convention and contests which were held in Lincoln, April 1, 2, and 3.

F. H. A. F. F. A. DANCE

THE ROYAL PARTY

On the night of January 26, about 150 students, parents, and guests attended the annual F. H. A. and F. F. A. dance held in the Wisner High School gymnasium. All were in suspense and eager to learn who would be the F. F. A. Queen and F. H. A. King.

The big moment arrived at 9:45 when Jerome Kersten took over as master of ceremonies.

The crown bearers, Patricia Spittler and Billie Hansen, led the royal party. They were followed by the second attendant, Jo Ann Vogel and her escort, Warren Heller. The first attendant, Alice Kaul and her escort, Don Roth, immediately preceded the long-awaited King and Queen. The Queen of F. F. A. was Mary Lou Feller, and the King of F. H. A. was Russell Brahmer. Russell crowned Mary Lou as Queen of F. F. A. and Alice Kaul in turn crowned Russell as King of F. H. A.

The girls wore corsages and F. F. A. pins which were presented by their escorts, and the boys wore boutonnieres. Music was furnished by Roy and his Modernaires from West Point.

The King and Queen were chosen from seniors in the F. F. A. and F. H. A. The attendants were chosen from juniors in the same organizations. The crown bearers were chosen by the program committee for the dance.

The Wisner Chapter of F.H.A. is a member of the national organization which is composed of young women who are interested in homemaking. This organization offers opportunities for the future development of pupil initiative in planning and carrying out activities related to homemaking.

Our local chapter consists of 38 members. Membership in this organization is entirely voluntary.

During the 1953-54 school year the F.H.A. has participated in national organization activities including a clothing drive, contributions to the National F.H.A. magazine, "Teen Talk," and attendance at the district meetings. A bake sale was given in addition to the regular activities held once every three weeks.

Student Council

This active group of students representing the entire high school student body undertook many projects this year. Besides sponsoring a twerp week and dance, noon movies and clash day, the student council also sold pop, candy, and popcorn for the benefit of students who eat their noon lunches at school.

Commerce

In the business like atmosphere of room three, sixty-six commercial students were taught typing, shorthand, and bookkeeping, and the "down-to-earth" speech and correct methods of correspondence employed in the business world. The objectives of the course were not only to master these skills, but also to give the student some understanding of, and preparation for, a successful adjustment in the business and social world.

Many are planning to base their careers on the complete commercial course that they are taking. Others are taking typing for personal use. The future teachers and vocational agriculture students find typing very beneficial in preparing themselves for the work they intend to do after graduation.

MARY GROSS CLUB OF FUTURE TEACHERS

The Wisner Future Teachers Club was organized in September 1951. The members are students in the normal training classes and other high school students who plan to teach. This club is affiliated with the national organization which has headquarters in Washington D. C. The Wisner club charter has three gold seals for three years membership. The club was named in honor of Miss Mary Gross for her long service in the Wisner Schools.

The formal initiation of six new members and installation of officers was held in September with Miss Gross as the installing officer.

The projects chosen for this year include work as assistant librarians, cadet teachers in grade school, room decorations, school publicity in Whitaker's window, and the recruitment of members of the teaching profession.

During National Education Week the group served tea for mothers and members of the faculty.

Mary Marshall was certain that wealthy Aunt Emmy had never forgiven her for eloping with Harvey, whom Aunt Emmy considered a very unsuccessful business man with a most unpromising future in butter and eggs. In spite of Mary's glowing letters to her aunt as well as to a girlhood friend, Aunt Emmy remained adamant, until one day, without warning she suddenly announced that she was dropping in on Mary and Harvey for a short visit before going abroad. She would be accompanied by Florence, another niece.

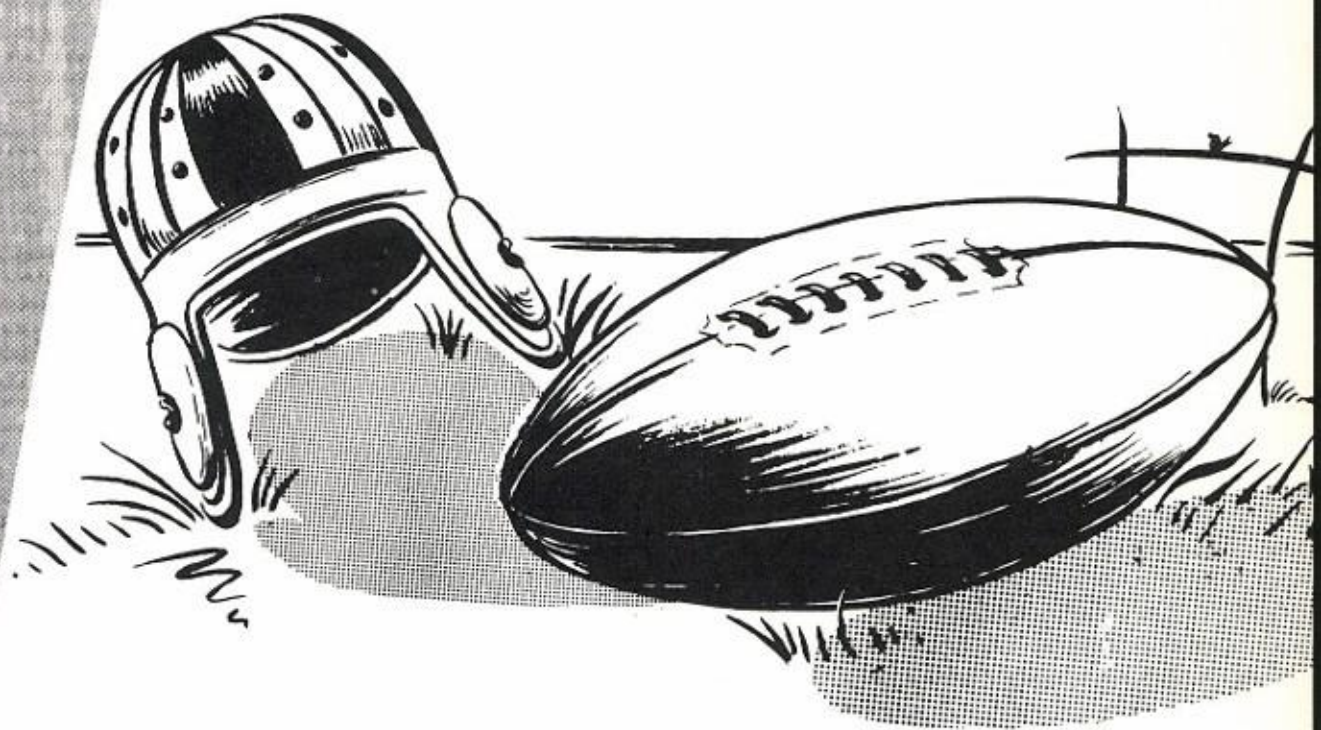

Dismayed, Mary realized that it would now be necessary to display to Aunt Emmy's critical eye all the signs of affluence which she had been reporting by letter. These included not only elaborate household furnishings, but also a staff of servants, complete from butler to maid.

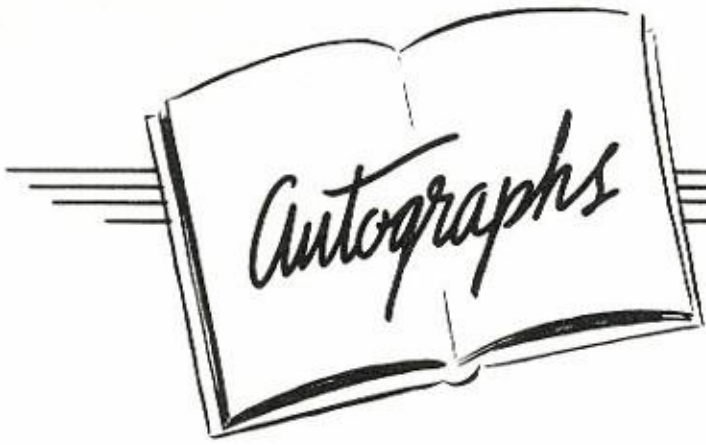

Undaunted, she borrowed freely from Sylvia, her neighbor and close friend--but Sylvia had no butler or maid. The local employment agency was able to provide a maid, Stella, who proved to be more eager than intelligent. But the only candidate whom the agency could provide as a butler could not be employed because he seemed to be a crook. Accordingly, Mary proposed that her husband, Harvey, act as temporary butler since Aunt Emmy would be visiting her only a short time and had never seen Harvey. Harvey, reluctant at first, finally agreed. Then it developed that Aunt Emmy really wished to transfer certain property to Mary's infant son, and Harvey's signature was indispensable. Faced with the necessity of producing a husband upon short notice, Mary with unfailing ingenuity hit upon the plan of borrowing one of Sylvia's friends as her step-husband. Inevitably, complications resulted. Butler-husband Harvey objected to step-husband Jerry's attentions to Mary; the baby disappeared; Sylvia's silverware was stolen; Harvey was arrested; and as a final blow, Florence discovered to her own horror and Mary's amazement that step-husband Jerry was her own fiance.

Explanations were attempted but they seemed only to make a bad matter worse until at last Aunt Emmy stated that she had not been fooled for even one minute, for she had seen many pictures of Dr. Gerald Niles, otherwise known as Jerry, Mary's step-husband, and had recognized him immediately. Then it developed that the baby hadn't really been stolen--just mislaid; and by his own father at that!

And so, after several hours of frantic intrigue, Mary's real husband was restored to his rightful place as head of the family; Baby Willie was returned to his parents; Aunt Emmy bestowed some of her property upon Willie, thus indicating her forgiveness of his parents; Florence and Jerry were reunited, and the play closed as the repentant Mary gave to the police her own surprising version of Willie's kidnapping.

Dear Alice,
Remember all the fun we had those two years out in District 70. Didn't we??
D.D. sure had a temper, didn't he??
He sure did some stuff out there thought. Remember the year we rode to high school together. There is so much to remember from our high school days. You lucky girl getting out after first semester. Best of luck to a real swell classmate and friend. Congratulations on being a salvatorian. Oh, yes, remember our 4-H Club, too.
Lots of luck,
Eileen Wilhelm

P.S. Remember the night
I was on a blind date and we double-dated.

Dear Alice!! I am so tired and I want to go to bed!! I wish what I could do to get enjoy a lot of sleep. I wish you a decision. I wish you a decision.
